

Dames gather to remember Honorary President General Belle Montgomery Chenault

In 2004 the grave of Belle Montgomery Chenault, Honorary State President of the Alabama State Society Colonial Dames XVII Century and Honorary President General of the National Society was marked in the City Cemetery of Decatur, Alabama by the Alabama State Society. On March 7, 2009, the National Society held a ceremony to place a Memorial Wreath in memory of Mrs. Chenault. The program was conducted by the President General, Mrs. Juanita Gex and Greetings were given by Mrs. Mary Ellen Ahlstrom, State President of the Alabama State Society. Tributes and Remembrances were given by the following dignitaries of the National Society, Juanita Gex, President General, Mary Johnston, Honorary President General, Bobbye Harkins, Honorary President General, Martha Ross, Honorary President General, Anne Swanson, Honorary President General, Chick Anderson, Past Organizing Secretary General who is a cousin, Sandra Renzy, First Vice President General, Jan Lockard, Chaplain General, and Ann Thornhill, Historian General. Loving memories were brought by Dr. Alice Chenault Harris and Martha Chenault Marks, daughters of Mrs. Chenault.